National Faculty Development Program on National Education Policy and Curriculum Design

Major Outcome of the FDP - Framing of NEP based syllabus

Overview

National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 was released on 29 July 2020. To equip the faculty towards the implementation of National Education Policy 2020 and preparation of curriculum for the new teaching learning process, we are planning to organize a 7-day faculty development program (FDP) for teachers, which may be used by the participants for the Career Advancement Scheme. The objective of this workshop is to orient various stakeholders on the recommendations of NEP 2020. The targeted training group comprises faculty of various colleges and State Universities in various streams. It may be also useful for interested Higher Secondary Teachers. The proposed faculty training will be conducted by faculty of Central Universities, who have been actively involved in the framing of curriculum under NEP 2020. The program will have seven days of total sessions that will last from 9:30 am to 4:00 pm between 22-11-2022 and 28-11-2022. Training sessions will consist of a few practical sessions and lectures that will touch upon the topics from different aspects of NEP and general aspects of improving quality of education in India in the light of National Educational Policy.

Topics Discussed and activities:

1. Introduction to National Education Policy 2020 and its Implications
2. Implementation of NEP 2020: Way Forward
3. Content, Pedagogy, and Technology Integration in teaching and learning
4. Remodeling Higher Education in the light of NEP-2020
5. Philosophy of Curriculum Development: Contextualizing the Content and Delivery
6. Training on the preparation of syllabus for different streams.
  - a. Philosophy and Ethics of Biology Education
  - b. How to organize UG Science Education- A case for Integrated Biology as a Single Discipline
