Subject: Information for Academic Calendar and the Implementation of ICT Program 2021 at Christ College Irinjalakuda, India

Dear Dr Vargheese K J,

We would like to inform you that the Directorate of Learning and Student Affairs of Indonesia Higher Education has announced that our institution will get grant for our students to study online at Christ College Irinjalakuda India. To follow up the program, we need some information from Christ College about the following:

1. The academic calendar informing when the courses will start at Functional English Language Department).
2. The courses schedule so that the students can also follow the other courses that they have to take in our institution.
3. The Learning management system (LMS) that is used in your institution and the video conference platform that will be used for online learning.
4. The syllabus or the curriculum of the subjects that our students will take in your institution as stated in the learning agreement letter.
5. The dates for the start of the course, the Midterm exam, Final term exam, the issue of the academic transcript, and any certificate that may be issued by your institution.
6. Any information about pre training/campus orientation for the students before they officially start the study and the regulation that the students should know and follow so that they can study in your institution smoothly.
7. Any other programs that the students should follow such as extra-curricular activities or any other activities in your institution.
8. The account number of Christ College so that we can transfer the tuition fees of our students after our government transfer the grant to our institution.

With this letter, we also attach the students' names, their departments, the subjects they will take in Christ College at Department of Functional English.
