Introduction

Prabodha Trust,Kochi, is a public charitable institution engaged in social,cultural and academic activities.The aim of the trust is to encourage the academic and social activities among the youths in Kerala. The trust is mainly focused to promote, organize, sponsor and undertake the study and research of the life and thought of Mahathma Gandhi. It also aims to provide a historical consciousness among the youths in Kerala and thus to create a balanced society.

Activities conducted:

As a part of this programme two webinars were organized on different topics. A webinar was organized on 15 th June,2021,4:00 p.m on online mode. Renowned globetrotter Sri. Santhosh George Kulangara shared his experiences. The title of the programme was Sancharam.The topic covered his experiences in different countries and the importance given by the countries to preserve their heritage and to protect their environment. The discussion after the session focused on the nature of our government and people to protect our heritage sites and monuments.He also pointed out the role of history departments to preserve the rich cultural tradition of India and shared his views regarding this.

The second webinar was organized on August 26th , 2021 ,7 .00 .pm on the topic “Sahodaran Ayyappan”. Sahodaran Ayyappan was one of the prominent social reformers of Kerala.His activities,mainly inter dining programmes made a revolutionary change in Kerala society.This webinar focused on the themes like how the activities of Sahodaran Ayyappan influenced the contemporary society and how it contributed to the process of modernisation of Kerala.
