Report of the event

Department of Economics has organised a webinar on “Future prospects of Kerala Economy in terms of Infrastructure Development” on 28th June 2021. KK Haneefa, Syndicate member, University of Calicut handled the session. The session was very informative to the students. A detailed analysis of the situation of Kerala economy, focusing on the infrastructure sector and its various development dimensions and future prospects were detailed in the session. The students were very well participated in the discussion session with numerous questions and doubts.
